GA envelopes labeled to collect from Narthex. Please do subscribe to this scheme, so that less of your gift be spent in admin cost and more in helping St Mary's.

Indeed, if you Gift Aid using the 'one-off' envelopes in the pews, our secretary needs more time to process more data. If you Gift Aid via the regular scheme, it is quicker for us to process, and thus your money is put to better use.

Help us minimise admin & maximise your giving: The box sets of GIFT AID envelopes for the new tax year will be available for collection shortly.

Anyone who is a tax payer and a regular user of the occasional Gift Aid envelopes (those left on the benches) and would prefer their own set of dated and numbered, Sunday Gift Aid envelopes, should contact Jane Wright in the Shrine Office warrington@fssp.org

Weekly Family Day: As soon as further DBS checks are completed, our monthly family day will occur weekly. After our usual 12.10pm Mass, there will be a picnic and 2 afternoon classes following a set curriculum. We will end with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament before joining (those who wish) the Junior Choir practice. Info/contact: Alison Kahn penketh.kahns@gmail.com

Eucharistic Congress: As a contribution to the Congress, Fr de Malleray will give a series of lectures on the Holy Eucharist at St Mary's (dates to be announced soon). Those will be broadcasted on LiveMass, as was the case for Fr Loewenstein's Lenten talks.

Three more paid-for spaces are available for Shrine parishioners to attend the Eucharistic Congress in September. Please contact urgently the clergy or directly Fr Dave Heywood, P.P.

March For Life: join us to London on Sat. 5th May for the great pro-life walk! Now is the time to walk for life. Day Return train tickets available: book with Peter Boyle our pro-life officer: p.boyle400@btinternet.com. With Frs de Malleray and Verrier.
